Classroom Policies:

- Respect for Fellow Students: All students will maintain respect for fellow classmates' personal beliefs, values, morals and life situations. Insensitivity concerning race, religion, sex/gender, sexual orientation, mental/physical disability, psychological disorders, age, or socio-economic status (family situation) will not be tolerated.
- Electronic Devices: The use of cell phones is not permitted in the classroom; they should be silenced and parked while in the classroom. Devices used for note-taking are permitted, but should be used responsibly and should not create distractions for you or others.
- Tardiness: Please do your best to manage your time well and be on time to class. If you are tardy, please enter the room quietly and take your seat. Being late to class is disruptive to your fellow classmates. I will frequently give a quiz at the beginning of class and you will miss it if you are late or absent. Quizzes cannot be made up.
- Disruptive Behavior: "Failure to comply with lawful directions of a classroom teacher relative to maintaining good order is considered misconduct on the part of the student. Repeated violations of disrupting a class will result in the student being dropped from the course." (See Student Guide)
- Attendance & Administrative Drop Policy: Attendance will be taken during each class meeting.

Students will be responsible for material presented and discussed in class. Due to South Plains College attendance policies, any student who fails to attend 5 classes during the semester or fails to complete two major grades may be dropped from the course with an 'X' or 'F.'

Late Work and Missed Work: The work is due on the dates assigned and will not be accepted after the due date.

Text Book: You will use Open Stax

Academic Integrity: You are expected to do your own work. You may not copy another student's work and present it as your own. You may not allow another student to copy your work. Complete honesty is required of the student in the presentation of any and all phases of course work. If the instructor determines an assignment to be plagiarized, the result can range from a zero for that assignment to failure of the course. The result will be determined by the instructor. See SPC College Catalog for additional information.

Equal Opportunity: South Plains College strives to accommodate the individual needs of all students in order to enhance their opportunities for success in the context of a comprehensive community college setting. It is the policy of South Plains College to offer all educational and employment opportunities without regard to race, color, national origin, religion, gender, disability or age. In short, "Bigotry will not be tolerated." (Student Guide)

Grading Policy and Method of Evaluation: Tests will count 75% of your final grade. Daily grades will count 25%.

Using the scale below, your instructor will determine the corresponding letter grade for South Plains College. Normal grading standards apply for your Southcrest Christian School grade, i.e. less than 70% is not passing. _____

A=90% _____

B=80% _____

C=70%

D=60%

F=less than 60%

Project/Paper: The paper will count as a test grade and will be due by Tuesday December 3 at the beginning of class. It will not be accepted late. The project will consist of application of a personal example to a concept in the text book. The description is on a separate sheet with a grading rubric that is attached. You can turn the paper in earlier but this is the deadline.

Quizzes: You should expect to have daily reading quizzes at the beginning of class. They will be over the reading assigned for that week. If you are late to class you will miss the quiz and there are no make-up quizzes. These quizzes will also help prepare you for the exam and you might see some of these questions on the exam.
