Textbooks: The Art of Being Human: The Humanities as a Technique for Living by Richard Janaro & Thelma Altshuler, 11th ed. ISBN: 9780134240305 Pearson (This is for an online ebook version called Revel)

Course Specific Instructions: refer to individual instructor's Course Information Sheet.

Course Description: This course is an interdisciplinary, multi-perspective assessment of cultural, political, philosophical, and aesthetic factors critical to the formulation of values and the historical development of the individual and of society.

Course Purpose: This course is an introductory course designed to acquaint students with a broad understanding of how the arts interface with individual and societies. A holistic approach will be utilized to explore ideas of aesthetic and intellectual creation in order to understand the human experience across cultures.

Course Requirements: To maximize the potential to successfully complete this course, the student should attend all class meetings, complete all homework assignments in a timely manner, and complete all examinations including the final exam. Internet courses require the work to be completed in specific time periods.

Course Evaluation: Refer to the instructor's course information sheet for specifics on assignments and testing.

Attendance Policy: Students are expected to attend all classes in order to be successful in a course. The student may be administratively withdrawn from the course when absences become excessive as defined in the course syllabus.

When an unavoidable reason for class absence arises, such as illness, an official trip authorized by the college or an official activity, the instructor may permit the student to make up work missed. It is the student's responsibility to complete work missed within a reasonable period of time as determined by the instructor. Students are officially enrolled in all courses for which they pay tuition and fees at the time of registration. Should a student, for any reason, delay in reporting to a class after official enrollment, absences will be attributed to the student from the first class meeting.

Students who enroll in a course but have “Never Attended” by the official census date, as reported by the faculty member, will be administratively dropped by the Office of Admissions and Records. A student who does not meet the attendance requirements of a class as stated in the course syllabus and does not officially withdraw from that course by the official census date of the semester, may be administratively withdrawn from that course and receive a grade of “X” or “F” as determined by the instructor. Instructors are responsible for clearly stating their administrative drop policy in the course syllabus, and it is the student’s responsibility to be aware of that policy.

It is the student’s responsibility to verify administrative drops for excessive absences through MySPC using his or her student online account. If it is determined that a student is awarded financial aid for a class or classes in which the student never attended or participated, the financial aid award will be adjusted in accordance with the classes in which the student did attend/participate and the student will owe any balance resulting from the adjustment.

See instructor’s Course Information Sheet for additions to the attendance policy.

The attempt of any student to present as his or her own any work which he or she has not honestly performed is regarded by the faculty and administration as a most serious offense and renders the offender liable to serious consequences, possibly suspension.

Chapter Quizzes

Module quizzes and short writings are not required nor graded, but are encouraged for your personal growth. All quizzes open the first day of class and can be taken as many times as you want to get a perfect score. Therefore, I will not drop any of them. Quizzes are open book, open note multiple choice questions. All quizzes are due at 11:59 pm of the due date. For due dates, please see the tentative schedule at the end of this document. All quizzes are administered through Revel, that you will access via Blackboard Learn.

IMPORTANT: Once a quiz due date has passed, I will not re-open the quiz. Manage your time wisely to make sure that you have plenty of time to work through any technical difficulties that may occur. IT IS YOUR RESPONSIBILITY TO BECOME COMPETENT WITH BLACKBOARD LEARN AND THE REVEL QUIZZES AND CONTENT. Do not put off accessing these quizzes until last minute due to the normal challenges that technology can present. More information regarding REVEL will be located under the REVEL tab on Blackboard to help you with common issues.

Exams

You will have four exams that will mainly consist of multiple choice questions. Exam 4 will also include a short essay. All exams are administered through Blackboard Learn. All exams are due at 11:59 pm of the due date. For due dates, please refer to the tentative schedule at the end of this document.

Make-up exams

If you are not able to take a scheduled exam for any reason, you must notify me prior to the scheduled test date in order to schedule a make-up exam that will typically take place before the time of the scheduled exam for the rest of the class. I only grant make-up exams in extreme cases. If you have an emergency, you must contact me by e-mail on the same day of the exam and provide documentation of the major emergency if you expect any opportunity to make up the exam. I reserve the right to deny a make-up exam to any student in order to maintain fairness to other students and in order to maintain the class schedule. If I choose to allow a make-up exam based on the provided documentation of a major emergency, it must be taken within one week after the original scheduled date. Without documentation of a major emergency, you will not have the opportunity to make-up the exam. In order to maintain fairness to all students, your make up exam may not be the same exam administered to the rest of the class.

Discussion Posts

There is one prompt for each chapter covered in the course. Each of you will respond to the prompt (initial post) to earn 10 points, and to one of your classmates' posts to earn 10 more points. You need to write no less than 200 and no more than 250 words each post. Simply saying "I agree" or "Great point" is not enough and will not allow you to earn points. You can agree, disagree, use any material from textbook, internet, readings, personal experiences, etc., and I only ask all of you to be respectful and polite to each other.

Man's Search for Meaning:

This semester you will be reading Viktor Frankl's Man's Search for Meaning (from now on, MSFM). Prompts to use for your short essay and the grading rubric are on Blackboard. You will need to submit a draft of your short essay (worth 25 points) on Nov. 20, and submit your revised essay by Dec. 4.

Academic Integrity:

As stated in your college catalog, "Offering the work of another as one's own, without proper acknowledgement, is plagiarism..." Students found guilty of plagiarism could fail or receive a zero on the work in question for the first offense and could be dropped from the course should a second offense occur. Cutting and pasting information directly from websites without citing your source also constitutes plagiarism. I will check your paper for plagiarism if I suspect it has occurred. If I determine that you are cheating on any phase of your course work, I will take action that could include giving you a “zero” on the course work or even possible dismissal from the course.
