Inclusive Access: Textbook and REVEL

You paid for inclusive access when you registered for the class. You should be able to click on the link to REDSHELF PEARSON and enter the course and have access to all materials for the semester.

- Textbook: The textbook and resources for this course are available in digital format through the Inclusive Access textbook program at South Plains College. That means the e-book edition of the textbook and/or all required resources are provided to students through Blackboard from the first day of class. The fee for the e-book/resources is the lowest price available from the publisher and bookstore and is included in the student tuition/fee payment. Therefore, students do not have to purchase a separate textbook or access card for this course.
- E-book features: Access to a cloud-based e-reader is provided by RedShelf via Blackboard. RedShelf e-book features include the ability to hear the text read aloud, highlight, take notes, create flash cards, see word definitions, build study guides, print select pages, and download up to 20% of the book for offline access. Visit <https://solve.redshelf.com/hc/en-us/requests/new> for e-book issues and support.
- Opting out of Inclusive Access: As long as they meet the opt-out deadline, students may choose not to participate in the Inclusive Access program if they have a textbook from another source. Students should check with the instructor for advice before deciding to opt out because Inclusive Access is the cheapest option for most students. Students should also find out whether course work is required in an online platform like Mindtap or Connect. If so, students who opt out would be required to purchase access to that platform in addition to acquiring the e-book on their own. To opt out of the Inclusive Access e-book/resources, students need to email tfewell4texasbookcompany@gmail.com before the census date. Students must include their first name, last name, student ID number, and the course they are opting out of in the email. Once students have been opted out of Inclusive Access, they will receive a confirmation email. Students who need assistance to opt out should contact the SPC Bookstore. The Inclusive Access fee will be refunded to students who opt out before the census date for their term of enrollment. The census date for fall and spring is the twelfth class day. The census date for shorter terms varies between the second and third class day

Attendance Policy:

- Even though this is an online class or a virtual classroom, students still have to access the course on a regular basis to so assessments, submit assignments and participate in class discussion via the class discussion board. If you do not complete assignments for 3 weeks this is reason to drop you from the course. Be sure that you keep up with assignments.
- The Blackboard software used to manage this online course tracks student logins, tracking when and where the student has been in the course. Accessing this course on a regular basis is extremely important in order to meet the objectives of this course. ### GRADING:

- The first post is an introduction of you to the class (see deadline on calendar). All Discussion topics will be listed on Discussion page.

  - DISCUSSIONS The topic is provided and you will be asked to respond to that question and/or video. There is one discussion every other day and it is worth 75 points each for a total of 1125 points. ○

There is approximately 1 quiz every other day as noted in the calendar.

ONLINE ETIQUETTE

A few words about communication and online discussion are in order. As you can imagine, some conversations easily become emotional, especially if we touch on people’s deeply held beliefs. Unfortunately, online posting can mislead one into thinking that cyberspace is an “anything goes” kind of forum. This isn’t the case. Civil interaction is as much expected here as in the “traditional” classroom. Below I provide some guidelines for communicating more effectively online. I will deduct points from posts that violate the spirit of these suggestions. IF I DEEM THE COMMENTS ESPECIALLY EGREGIOUS I WILL DROP YOU FROM THE CLASS.

Essay Questions:

These should be polished writing assignments which use the written standards of conventional English (i.e. spelling, punctuation, paragraph form and grammar count!). Be sure and address textbook information in your assignment.

- As in the Discussion Board requirements, you must use the psychological perspective and you should reference textbook material (but do not copy) to show an understanding of terms and concepts to receive the maximum number of points. When using text or other sources, it is important that you use YOUR OWN words to demonstrate that you understand the material. Don't copy/paste from textbook or other sources since that is plagiarism and dishonest. Points are deducted for length, spelling, grammar, paragraph form, etc.
- To help students keep on track and learn to the address topic clearly, the questions are very specific.
  - Remember grades are based on what you write not what you intended to say.
- These should be polished writing assignments which use the written standards of conventional English (i.e. spelling, punctuation, paragraph form and grammar count!). Be sure and address textbook information in your assignment. You should reference textbook material to show an understanding of terms and concepts to receive the maximum number of points. ○ NOTE: If you are unable to reword something then that usually means you don't know understand the material.

Calendar/Due Dates:

- Check the calendar for all due dates and due dates are also listed on quizzes, assignments, discussions, and learning modules. NOTE:
DEADLINES are for MIDNIGHT for the date due.
- Late work: For the purposes of this course there are set deadlines (see assignment/testing/calendar links for dates). All work (quizzes, assignments, discussions) assigned for that week must be posted or submitted by that time to receive credit. . Excuses such as "The network was down," or "I could not figure out how to send the assignment " or "Time expired just as I went to hit the submit button" are not acceptable. In short, plan ahead and do not wait until the last minute to submit your assignments.
- Check on the Announcements for your calendar with all the dates.

Grade Distribution:

A = 90% This would mean having more than 90% of the 3125 points or 2812 points

B = 80% This would mean having more than 80% of the 3125 points or above 2500 points.

C = 70% This would mean having more than 70% of the 3125 points or above 2187 points.

D = 60% This would mean having more than 60% of the 3125 points or above 1875 points.

F = 59% or less If your total points are below 1843 then you are failing.

- Student Conduct – "Failure to comply with lawful directions of a classroom teacher relative to maintaining good order is considered misconduct on the part of the student. Repeated violations of disrupting a class will result in the student being dropped from the course" (see SPC Student Guide). Please note that this is an online environment and others will see your comments posted to the discussion board area and/or in e-mail communications.
