SO . . . YOU'VE DECIDED TO TAKE ANATOMY AND PHYSIOLOGY. WHAT NOW?

You'll probably want a textbook. Luckily, yours can be accessed for free, without leaving the comfort of your shelter. Visit www.openstax.org.

You might have noticed that this syllabus looks a little different than your normal syllabus. Well done! Your observational skills will serve you well during this semester. You will find lecture notes and a link to your lecture videos on your Blackboard page. Lectures will be found on YouTube. Be sure to check the date on the video! While lectures from last semester might be amusing, they will most certainly not apply to the current semester. Like and subscribe! That makes it easier to keep up with new lectures, because they will be right beside your cat videos! There will be a playlist marked clearly for your class. Lab material will also be delivered via YouTube, but will consist of demonstrations of the awesome labs we would have done, had we been in the classroom. Take my word for it, the labs would have been epic. You will find new lectures posted in the evenings, after my children are asleep.

WHAT ABOUT GRADES?

Your final grade will be calculated from your scores on four lecture exams and four lab exams. Your lecture exam scores are 70% of your grade, while the lab exam scores are worth 30%. All exams will be released on Blackboard and you will have a 24 hour window to complete the exam.

QUESTIONS?

Need advice? You can reach me via e-mail at jnicholson@southplainscollege.edu, or you can text me at (806)790-3458. Keep in mind that is my personal number, so try to keep it to normal human operating hours. It is, however, the best way to reach me.

Students with disabilities, including but not limited to physical, psychiatric, or learning disabilities, who wish to request accommodations in this class should notify the Disability Services Office early in the semester so that the appropriate arrangements may be made. In accordance with federal law, a student requesting accommodations must provide acceptable documentation of his/her disability to the Disability Services Office. For more information, call or visit the Disability Services Office through the Guidance and Counseling Centers at Reese Center (Building 8) 716-4606, or Levelland (Student Services Building) 716-2577

It is the policy of South Plains College for the Spring 2021 semester that as a condition of on-campus enrollment, all students are required to engage in safe behaviors to avoid the spread of COVID-19 in the SPC community. Such behaviors specifically include the requirement that all students properly wear CDC-compliant face coverings while in SPC buildings including in classrooms, labs, hallways, and restrooms. Failure to comply with this policy may result in dismissal from the current class session. If the student refuses to leave the classroom or lab after being dismissed, the student may be referred to the Dean of Students on the Levelland campus or the Dean/Director of external centers for Student Code of Conduct Violation. Students who believe they have been exposed or may be COVID-19 positive, must contact Health Services, DeEtte Edens, BSN, RN at (806) 716-2376 or dedens@southplainscollege.edu.

GOOD LUCK!
