Course Description:

In God's pursuit of mankind, He has left His fingerprints in every aspect of creation for us to discover and in turn pursue Him. Truth, Goodness, and Beauty are found in the very vehicle used to express our discoveries—Language. For the Classical learner, it is also an opportunity to see how one strand of Latin has developed and changed since antiquity, and to let Latin's most robust grandchild be your gateway to understanding the fascinating worlds of more than 450 million Spanish-speakers in 23 modern countries.¹ Through the use of language we get to know ourselves and others. There are many reasons for studying Spanish among which are the broadening of your mind as you encounter different cultures and the opening of doors for your future career and travel.

We will continue to build on the foundation laid in Spanish 1-3 as we deepen our knowledge of the language and the cultures that speak it. We will incorporate speaking, listening, reading and writing each week in different activities and assignments.
