South Plains College Improves Each Student's Life

I. General Course Information:

- A. Description: This course is an introduction to basic aural, visual, and vocal experiences in dictation and singing at sight with emphasis on identification of chord progression, motion, and melody/harmony relationships of popular music.
- B. Course Learning Outcomes: Through this course the student will:
- Gain the vocabulary necessary to communicate intelligently with other trained musicians
 - Gain the terminology used to describe modern song forms
 - Gain the ability to listen to contemporary musical works and create basic musical charts of these
 - Refine his/her skill in aurally visualizing the sound of musical notation and the reverse – notating the music one hears.
- C. Course Competencies: Students will be required to develop subtle music-listening and music-writing skills.
- D. Academic Integrity: It is the aim of the faculty of South Plains College to foster a spirit of complete honesty and a high standard of integrity. The attempt of any student to present as his or her own work which he or she has not honestly performed is regarded by the faculty and administration as a most serious offense and renders the offender liable to serious consequences, possibly suspension. Students should refer to the SPC General Catalog, pg.22-23, regarding consequences for cheating and plagiarism (see "Academic Integrity" as well as "Student Conduct" sections).
- E. SCANS COMPETENCIES: C-1, C-3, C-5, C-6, C-7, C-8, C-18, C-19
- FOUNDATION SKILLS: F-1, F-2, F-5, F-6, F-7, F-8, F-9, F-10, F-11, F-12, F-13, F-16
- F. Verification of Workplace Competencies: Successful completion of this course will equip the student with many of the skills necessary to complete the capstone experience presented at the end of the second semester of study for certificate candidates and at the end of the fourth semester of study for degree candidates.

II. Specific Course/Instructor Requirements:

A. Textbook and Other Materials: Sight Singing, The Complete Method For Singers, by Mike Campbell, 1998, by Hal Leonard Corporation. Students are encouraged to keep thorough notes of class lectures, diagrams, examples, and exercises. Students should bring music manuscript and conventional notebook paper, pen, & pencil to each class session.

Attendance Policy:

Good attendance is critical in the world of work. It is the cornerstone of academic success. For these reasons, attendance is a grade in this class. For each unexcused absence, 3 points will be subtracted from the overall average. Tardiness may result in 1 point deducted. The acceptability of each excuse is solely at the discretion of the teacher.

If you are no longer attending class, it is your responsibility to drop the course. The instructor may drop a student after three consecutive unexcused absences; but is not required to do so. If the instructor does not drop you, and you do not drop, you will receive the grade of F.

Absence due to illness –

A student with an infectious disease (such as Strep, or Flu) should not attend class. If a student is staying home due to illness, he/she should contact the teacher via phone or email. Every reasonable attempt will be made to help students who must miss class due to severe illness.

COVID Policy: If you are experiencing any of the following symptoms, please do not attend class and either seek medical attention or get tested for COVID-19.

- Cough, shortness of breath, difficulty breathing
- Fever or chills
- Muscles or body aches
- Vomiting or diarrhea
- New loss of taste and smell

Please also notify DeEtte Edens, BSN, RN, Associate Director of Health & Wellness, at dedens@southplainscollege.edu or 806-716-2376.

Class Room Behavior-

Disruptive disrespectful behavior towards students or the instructor will not be tolerated and will result in disciplinary measures. It is important that all students maintain professional attitudes and actions at all times. Cell phones, iPods, and other electronic devices must be silenced or off before class begins and may be taken by the instructor if necessary. Failure to comply with any classroom policy may result in the student's removal from class.

Assignment Policy -

All assignments are to be submitted for grading at the time specified. Assignments missed due to absence may be excused, but late assignments will not be accepted.

Students may be asked to turn in computer progress reports at assigned times.

Failure to submit progress reports in a timely fashion may result in a grading penalty (at the discretion of the instructor). Failure to complete the assigned material may result in the student being given a final grade of "Incomplete" for the course.

Improper use of electronic devices during class may result in a "Technical" absence: In this case, the student may be marked absent for the day and/or asked to leave for the day.

Grading Policy/Procedure:

Average of four test scores (minus attendance penalties – see above) = 75% of Grade
Average of homework, classwork, and outside assignments (also as above) = 25% of Grade

Homework, classwork, and outside assignments are very important. Failure to submit these assignments due to absence may be excused by the instructor, but may or may not be accepted late.

- Grades are assigned as follows: A = 90-100; B = 80-89; C = 70-79; D = 60-69; F = 0-59

The weighing and valuation of test questions lies at the discretion of the instructor.

- B. Special Requirements: This course is intended to be taken concurrently with MUSC 1313

III. Course Outline:

- Establishing accepted terminology for discussing the form of contemporary songs and short instrumental pieces
- The art of listening analytically to music and the methodology of charting the form of songs will be covered.
- The structural analysis of contemporary songs will be discussed, as well as the terminology that trained musicians use to communicate with peers.
- Developing awareness of textures
- The roles and interrelationship of the individual instruments in the musical ensemble will be examined and appropriate terms explained.
- Examples of contemporary songs will be used to illustrate how producers, arrangers, and songwriters employ "repertoire-based" styles to put both variety and cohesion into their work.
- Conventional Ear Training
- Melodic intervals
- Identification of major, minor, diminished, and augmented triads
- Basic drum "beats" and (their constituent) parts
- Basic chord progressions
- Rhythmic dictation
- Computer assisted exercises may be employed topically to enhance the learning

IV. Accommodations

South Plains College strives to accommodate the individual needs of all students in order to enhance their opportunities for success in the context of a comprehensive community college setting. It is the policy of South Plains College to offer all educational and employment opportunities without regard to race, color, national origin, religion, gender, disability or age (SPC Equal Opportunity Policy--General Catalog).

V. Disabilities

A student who enrolls in this class that may need classroom accommodations is strongly encouraged to schedule an intake interview with the special services department before enrolling in this class or prior to the add/drop date for this semester.

Levelland Campus

Students with disabilities, including but not limited to physical, psychiatric, or learning disabilities, who wish to request accommodations in this class should notify the Disability Services Office early in the semester so that the appropriate arrangements may be made. In accordance with federal law, a student requesting accommodations must provide acceptable documentation of his/her disability. For more information, call or visit the Disability Services Office in the Student Health & Wellness Office, 806-716-2577.

VI. Diversity

In this class, the teacher will establish and support an environment that values and nurtures individual and group differences and encourages engagement and interaction. Understanding and respecting multiple experiences and perspectives will serve to challenge and stimulate all of us to learn about others, about the larger world and about ourselves. By promoting diversity and intellectual exchange, we will not only mirror society as it is, but also model society as it should and can be.

VII. Injury Or Illness Addendum

In the event that you are injured or are ill, creating a situation where you cannot perform for an extended period, it is agreed that the student will drop this course if the instructor deems it appropriate.
