Course Description: This course is a survey of fundamental principles of political science, including the American system of government and the origins and development of the constitutions of the United States. This course satisfies the Legislative requirement for teacher certification.

Credit: 3 Lecture Hours
Prerequisites: TSI compliance in Reading

Course Purpose: Government 2305, as taught at South Plains College, is a reading intensive course designed to acquaint the learner with the origin and development of the U.S. Constitution, structure and powers of the national government including the legislative, executive, and judicial branches, federalism, political participation, the national election process, public policy, civil liberties and civil rights. This course meets the statutory requirements as set forth by the State of Texas.

Approval Number 45.1002.51.25

Course Requirements: To maximize a student's potential to complete this course, he/she should attend all class meetings, complete all homework assignments and examinations in a timely manner, and complete all other projects or papers as assigned in the instructor's specific instructions.

Internet Access

This course is an online course and you must have reliable access to a computer and the internet. If you do not own a computer or do not have reliable internet access then I would recommend using the computer lab, library or other appropriate alternative. You must have access to a computer and the internet to complete this course. Failure to have access to either a computer or the internet is not a valid excuse for missing assignments, quizzes, exams or other course content. Please make sure that you have a reliable internet connection when beginning exams and quizzes as you will only have one opportunity to complete those assessments.

Course Evaluations: See the instructor's course information sheet for specific items used in evaluating student performance.

Exams: There will be three exams in this course. Exams will consist of multiple choice questions and possibly a few true/false or short answer questions.

Exam 1 will cover the material from Week 1 through Week 4

Exam 2 will cover the material from Week 6 through Week 9

Final Exam will cover the material from Week 11 through Week 15

Quizzes: Each week (except exam weeks and Thanksgiving Week) you will complete a quiz on the relevant topic. Reading the textbook, lecture slides and other course material on the topic of the week is sufficient to successfully complete each quiz.

Essay: On three occasions you will be asked to write an essay to address a question pertaining to the subject of the week. Your essay will be a written assignment pertaining the topic of the week.

Discussion Posts: On three occasions you will be asked to participate in a discussion forum. I will assign a topic for discussion and you must (1) submit a discussion post addressing the question posed to the Discussion Forum and (2) you must respond to the discussion post of at least one other student. You will be graded on completion of each task as well as your use of the course material.

Plagiarism and Cheating: Plagiarism and cheating in any form will not be tolerated in this course. South Plains College policies allow a wide range of punishment for cheating including failing the assignment, quiz, exam or the course. I will be vigilant against cheating and we will discuss how to avoid plagiarism in class. All assessments must be completed individually.

Late Work: Late work will not be accepted and there will be no opportunities to make up exams, quizzes, or other assignments after their due date. Since this is an online course you have the flexibility to complete assignments at any time throughout the week (or earlier) before the assessment's due date. Please be conscious of due dates so that you can receive credit for every assessment.

Extra Credit: There will likely be no extra credit opportunities in this course. At the discretion of the instructor extra credit may be offered on exams or some other form if necessary. Extra credit opportunities are not guaranteed and will never be offered to individual students.

Attendance Policy: Since this is an online course I will not take daily attendance. However, you are expected to complete your work on time. If you fail to complete two consecutive weeks of assessments, you may be dropped from the course. If you are sick or have other reasons for a prolonged absence, please email the instructor.

Classroom Discussions: Given the nature of this course students may express political views contrary to your own and while you are not required to agree with those views you are required to be respectful. I encourage you to express your own views but you must be respectful in both tone and the delivery of your viewpoint.

Diversity Statement: In this class, I will establish and support an environment that values and nurtures individual and group differences and encourages engagement and interaction. Understanding and respecting multiple experiences and perspectives will serve to challenge and stimulate all of us to learn about others, about the larger world, and about ourselves. By promoting diversity and intellectual exchange, we will not only mirror society as it is, but also model society as it should and can be.

Students with Disabilities: Students with disabilities, including but not limited to physical, psychiatric, or learning disabilities, who wish to request accommodations in this class should notify the Disability Services Office early in the semester so that the appropriate arrangements may be made. In accordance with federal law, a student requesting accommodations must provide acceptable documentation of his/her disability to the Disability Services Office. For more information, call or visit the Disability Services Office at Levelland Student Health & Wellness Center 806-716-2577, Reese Center (also covers ATC) Building 8: 806-716-4675, Plainview Center Main Office: 806-716-4302 or 806-296-9611, or the Health and Wellness main number at 806-716-2529.

SPC Policy Regarding "Standard English": All written assignments should be presented using the conventions of Standard Written English. South Plains College requires all students to become proficient in "academic English," a form of English that is typically used in academic, professional, and business contexts. While slang, regional idioms, and informal kinds of self-expression are appropriate in some contexts, they are out of place in academic writing. Writing instructors and professors in courses across the campus expect all students to demonstrate proficiency in using the conventions of academic English in their written work, whether it is in-class exams or take-home essays.

Emails: All emails should include your name, course and section number. I am teaching multiple courses and most of your other professors are also teaching multiple courses therefore it is imperative that you include this basic information so that I can (and your other professors can) address your question or concern.

Do not use the blackboard email function. If you need to contact me please use my SPC email address tholland@southplainscollege.edu. If you do not receive a response within 48 hours please re-send the email.
