Students may also submit an additional writing assignment (instructions provided in a separate link on the Course Content page) for a possible 10 extra credit points. The extra credit assignment will be due by Wednesday, May 28, at 11:59 p.m. If you plagiarize an assignment, you will lose the extra credit opportunity.

Because I am offering this extra credit opportunity, late papers and exams will not be accepted for any reason other than a documented emergency or a verified problem with Blackboard.

Student Privacy:

South Plains College is bound by the Texas Open Records Law and the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974. Information regarding these topics can be found in the South Plains College Catalog. As far as this class is concerned, I will NOT release or discuss your class performance, grades, averages, or attendance with anyone but you. This means that your parents, class counselors, principals, or any other interested party will not gain this information from me - if they need this sort of information they must ask you for it.

Academic Dishonesty:

Most students work hard to earn grades through their own efforts. Unfortunately, I occasionally encounter students who attempt to get through my course through dubious means. Let me state my policy on these issues clearly:

I have zero tolerance for cheating and plagiarism and will vigorously deal with these circumstances in accordance with the guidelines set forth in the South Plains College Policy & Procedures Manual, Section FF. This will mean a failing grade on the exam/assignment in question at the minimum, and can entail failure of the course and/or expulsion from the college.

Plagiarism: For purposes of this class, plagiarism can mean several people turning in the same or closely related papers for the writing assignments or discussions, including copying work from a student who took this course a previous semester. Discussion responses that are copied directly from the book and/or a website and Writing Assignments (including the Extra Credit Writing Assignment) without citations or copied directly from a website and/or book, in whole or in part, will also fall under this category.

Additionally, I know it may be tempting to download papers from the Internet. However, please remember that there are many powerful software programs designed to detect plagiarism available to me and I know how to use them. I also have a pretty good idea of what student writing looks like. Finally, I have read the textbook and it's pretty easy for me to look up and see whether someone has merely copied from the text and turned it in as their answer. I take plagiarism seriously. So should you.

Exams will be taken using Honorlock. You are not allowed to use any outside sources for the exams (notes, online sources, textbook, etc.) If you use any resources to take the major exams, you will receive a zero for the exam.

Plagiarism of an assignment or cheating on an exam will result in the loss of the extra credit opportunity. Plagiarism of one assignment or cheating on an exam will result in a zero and a warning. Plagiarism of two assignments and/or cheating on two exams will result in being dropped from the course with an F.

Artificial Intelligence (AI) Resources:

There are now websites that will generate semi-unique material that somewhat resembles original material. Since the technology is available to create this content, technology is also available to detect this content. This is plagiarism. I am not asking AI to write a paper, I am asking you, the student, to create this content. If you submit work that is not your own, original material, it will be considered plagiarism and receive a grade of zero. The incident will also be reported to the Dean of Students for disciplinary actions.

Examinations:

There will be four major exams in this course. You may not use any resources when taking the exams. You must have Honorlock installed on your computer in order to take exams. Instructions for installing Honorlock will be contained in the Blackboard course. You will have 60 minutes to take each exam. For purposes of this class, this means 60 consecutive minutes.

To access the exams for this course, click on the folder for that week found on the Course Content page.

If you have computer problems while taking your exam, please send me an email immediately. It is your responsibility to let me know that you have a problem as soon as the problem occurs. If you do not let me know about the problem until after the exam closes, you will not be able to take the exam.

You will receive a study guide for each exam. The exams will consist of multiple choice questions and will come from the lectures.

Quizzes:

There will be ten unit quizzes. These quizzes will be taken from the textbook and will be open book. You will have unlimited time to take them. Quiz deadlines are found in the Schedule of Assignments.

To access the quizzes for this course, click on the appropriate unit folder found on the Course Content page.

If you have computer problems while taking your quiz, please send me an email immediately. It is your responsibility to let me know that you have a problem as soon as the problem occurs. If you do not let me know about the problem until after the quiz closes, you will not be able to take the quiz.

Discussions:

I will post one question to the course discussion forum for three units this semester. Your response should reflect careful thinking and should be phrased in proper English (you know - capitalization, correct spelling, punctuation, complete sentences, etc.). Your responses must be between a paragraph (at least five sentences) and a page in length. I expect you to cite page numbers when quoting and/or paraphrasing the textbook, and you should enclose the direct quote in quotation marks. Here is how you do that:

Students who turn in discussion responses that include direct quotes from the text not enclosed in quotation marks or paraphrasing that does not cite a page number from the text will receive a grade of zero for that assignment.

All responses to the question must have citations. You either need to include the page number from the textbook or a website from which you obtained your information. If you do not include a citation for your response to the question, you will not earn credit for that response. Citing a page number from the textbook or a website does not mean you can copy directly from your source. If you quote from a source, you must use quotation marks. Otherwise, it is plagiarism. Quotations should be used sparingly.

These discussions will be closely monitored and no foul language, personal insults, or meandering off topic will be tolerated. Students who break the rules will be warned once; if they continue to violate the rules, they will receive a zero for the Discussion grade for the entire semester.

Writing Assignments:

There will be two writing assignments worth 20 points each. Instructions for these assignments will be contained within that unit's learning module. Deadlines for assignments are found in the Schedule of Assignments.

Academic Writing:

South Plains College requires all students to become proficient in "academic English," a form of English that is typically used in academic, professional, and business contexts. While slang, regional idioms, and informal kinds of self-expression are appropriate in some contexts, they are out of place in academic writing. Writing instructors and professors in courses across the campus expect all students to demonstrate proficiency in using the conventions of academic English in their written work, whether it is in-class exams or take-home essays.

Grading:

I will post grades for your assignments approximately 1-2 days after the assignments are due.

Late Assignment Policy:

Late assignments and exams will not be accepted for any reason other than a documented emergency, illness, or a verified problem with the Blackboard server. If you cannot submit your assignment on time due to an accepted excuse, you must contact the instructor prior to the deadline in order to submit the assignment late.

If you plan to be out of town or involved in any extracurricular activity that interferes with a deadline, it is your responsibility to submit the writing assignment, discussion, and/or quiz prior to the deadline. Late work will not be accepted due to a trip or extracurricular activity.

Submission of Assignments:

It is your responsibility to double-check the submission of your work. If your work is not submitted (even though you may have attempted to submit it), I will not accept the assignment late.

If you have problems submitting an assignment through the correct submission link, it is your responsibility to send the assignment to me through email by the assignment deadline or you will not receive credit.

Computer Problems:

You will need to plan ahead and allow sufficient time to submit your work. Computer problems (including WiFi problems) are not a valid excuse for submitting late work. If you do have computer problems when submitting an assignment, you will need to find another computer to use in order to submit your work. (Family members, friends, and libraries are excellent sources for locating another working computer.) Waiting until the last minute to submit your work and discovering that you have a computer problem is not an acceptable excuse for submitting late work.

Always, always, always back up your work on your computer. I recommend saving a copy to your hard drive and also saving a copy to a flash drive (or even email it to yourself). Losing your work because you have computer problems and do not have a back-up copy is not a valid excuse to submit late work.
